“Our lives begin to end the day we become silent about things that matter.”

Martin Luther King, Jr.

MLK DAY
JAN. 19, 2015

CBJ “I have a dream” Writing Competition

MLK had dreams for the future, a future of equality. What are your dreams for your future, the future for your community, or the world? How can those dreams make this a better place and how can they be accomplished?

Minimum of 500 words

Typed or handwritten is acceptable

Due to Mrs. Cantin or Mrs. Lawrence by

January 16th at 4:15 PM

Prizes include Visa gift cards, movie tickets, and more.

Three winner from each grade level will progress to the campus wide competition for top three winners overall. CBJ students only!