Notice about Multidisciplinary Studies Associates Degrees
Do you intend to take basic courses at a community college and then transfer to a university to complete a bachelor's degree? If so, please NOTE: A Multidisciplinary Studies Associate Degree (MSAD) Program is an associate of arts or associate of science degree made up of the college's core curriculum and additional courses. The courses beyond the core curriculum are to be chosen by the student with advice from an academic advisor with the goal of selecting courses that will transfer to the student's chosen field of study or major when the student transfers to the university of his/her choice.
Those schools with at least one MSAD eligible program have been indicated in the list of schools below.

educational background

Fields marked with an asterisk (*) are required.

1. High School You Graduated From or Expect to Graduate From: *

You will speed the processing of your application by searching for and selecting your high school via the school search option. Have an official transcript sent to each university to which you apply.

To begin the school search process, click the school search button, then enter the name of your high school. If you are unable to find a match in the database, please select the "School not found" option at the bottom of the search page.

Search for Your High School

High School Name:
 High School Code:
 High School City or Country:

 Yes No Not Applicable

Step 10 – Search for your High School

ApplyTexas School Search

Search by School Name, City, State, Country

Search tips:

For the fastest search, enter only the school name.

Adding the city will limit the list when searching for common school names or larger geographic areas.

To search for all the schools in a particular city or country, leave the school name field blank.

Entering information in all fields isn't necessary and will limit the results to only schools that match the criteria.
