

WICOR *w*ednesday

Writing Inquiry Collaboration Organization Reading

Highlighted Strategy: World Café

A World Café is a structured conversational process for knowledge sharing in which groups of people discuss a topic at several tables, with individuals switching tables periodically and getting introduced to the previous discussion at their new table by a "table host".

World Café = Inquiry and Collaboration

Examples & Tips	Teacher's Take	Dean's Challenge
The link below provides a great student-friendly visual and explanation of World Café. World Cafe  PIC-COLLAGE	Q: What are the benefits of World Café? A: "World Café offers students time to collaborate, become experts on a given topic, and provides leadership opportunities as they make unique connections to "their" work. The students become ME as they teach their peers." -- Misty Dolgner	Before the end of the 1st 6 weeks, invite Ms. Bland to witness a World Café discussion in your classroom. The most engaging and interactive World Café will receive a treat. 