

College Visit Information for Seniors

Seniors, did you know that you can get up to two school days excused for taking college visits during your senior year?

Here's what you need to know:

If you miss school to attend a college visit, you MUST bring a note from the college you visited to the senior office upon your return to school.

Frequently Asked Questions:

1. Can I bring a note from my parent stating that I was on a college visit?

Answer: No. You must have a note from the school you visited in order to have your day(s) excused.

2. Can I have more than two days excused for college visits during my senior year?

Answer: No. You only get two excused absences for college visits during your senior year.
